Comments: At the Boise Open House on 12/9 at the Holiday Inn, I submitted a hand written comment asking to extend the review period to at least February 10th.

I realize reading thousands of comments likely slows down the Forest Services' ability to respond. Since I have not heard a response, I am again asking to extend the review period. Today, I found 5 new supporting documents uploaded on December 14th, ranging from 26 to 120 pages. Please extend the review period to February 10th or March 10th to give the public an opportunity to read and learn these documents, and comment intelligently.

I give permission to respond only once for this comment and the comment from December 9th, rather than responding twice.

Thank you for considering my request.
