

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/3/2023 5:57:06 PM

First name: Samuel

Last name: Phillips

Organization:

Title:

Comments: The Stibnite Gold Project poses too much risk of environment damage to the South Fork Salmon River. I was a river guide on the Salmon River and I cherish the natural environment of the Salmon Basin, including wild salmon populations. I have witnessed the harm mining can inflict on river systems in the Yankee Fork, where ecological systems will likely never recover. The project should not be granted approval by USFS.