

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/6/2023 1:45:17 AM

First name: David

Last name: Hartwell

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I am writing in opposition to the proposed Stibnite mining project in the headwaters of the South Fork of the Salmon River. Open pit mining coupled with cyanide leaching has never been done without pollution issues over time. To do that at the headwaters of a significant watershed simply makes no sense. The short and long term effects on wildlife and water quality, not to mention the disturbance to wild areas that should be preserved are not worth the short term economic benefits.