

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/9/2023 4:29:31 PM

First name: Neal

Last name: Stanton

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Great job making the selection of the Burntlog passage for the mine. Keeping the mine road at the crest of the hills is much better for avalanche safety reasons than selecting the path of the road in the valley. In my past employment, I sold avalanche mitigation explosive products to the area. This valley has a long history of avalanche-prone activities so placing the road out of the way of the avalanche zones was a significant safety improvement. Thanks for keeping miners and others safe.