

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/10/2023 1:26:21 AM

First name: Aaron

Last name: Tate

Organization:

Title:

Comments: As a 6th generation Idahoan, and a career fly fishing guide, I am strongly opposed to this mining project. Once you ruin a river, you never truly get it back. Bull trout and salmon are in a decline in our state, and I make a living directly off the clean, healthy rivers they live in. Polluting the south fork would harm Idaho's legacy, and we would lose a resource that we would never get back.