

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/10/2023 6:08:47 PM

First name: Clancy

Last name: Thomas

Organization:

Title:

Comments: The Southfork is one of Americas true treasures as far as River go. These places need to be preserved or they will become nonexistent. There are many places that a gold mine could be productive that are not nearly as detrimental to the environment. The ecosystem in this area is truly incredible. It is one of the few places I have been that feels truly untouched. Please don't risk destroying this area simply for human greed. Save the beautiful places we have left.