Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/10/2023 7:38:56 PM
First name: Mack
Last name: Lyons
Organization:
Title:
Comments: Extractive mining has proven to often be harmful to water and local environments. I care about water much more than gold. Extracting gold will make money short term for a corporation and a small number of individuals. Longer term, if still pristine, the area and water will be worth much more than the gold for a much larger number of people.