Comments: Hello, my name is Robert McPherson. I am a resident of Idaho and avid angler. As an indigenous person I am concerned that the mine will have detrimental ramifications and further impact the Idaho wilderness.

Have the population of fish in Idaho not been through enough? Have we not done enough damage to the homes of animals and plants? Have my people not been through enough? This project will not only impact the plants and animals on the region but people too. It conflicts with established Treaty Rights. Tribal treaty rights and interests will be impacted in perpetuity. Hunting, gathering, and fishing will never be the same.

We can be a part of change in this state and country. It starts with denying this mine.
