Comments: I want to voice my disagreement with the idea that the Overmountain shelter is beyond repair and usefulness. Like so many other hikers I stayed there after days of cold and rain. It was a refuge that was so totally needed for me. Southbound and along in November of 2015.

That said I am a carpenter with 50 years of experience Including Historical Restoration for the national register. I saw nothing structural that couldn't be repaired and would be willing to help with that.
