Comments: As an avid hiker, I am so disheartened by the brutal destruction of our forests, trails and beautiful forests. Please, please reconsider. God has given us a beautiful earth to treasure and respect. There are wildlife that are destroyed when forest "thinning" happens. I live close to Tucker Brook in Milford and it is just disgraceful what that looks like now that thousands of trees have been cut down. It was never cleaned up ... looks like an apocalypse happened as you drive by. The earth was designed by God to take care of itself. Leave it be!!
