

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 2/15/2023 12:50:22 PM

First name: Sharon

Last name: Shea

Organization:

Title:

Comments: The minute I saw the tag line about doing the best to benefit the most, it sounds as if the forests are a commodity being divided up to benefit the 'most important' - like the logging industry. Forest agencies should be the protector of forests, not commercial interests in any way. Someone should stand up for forest preservation and especially old growth forests. The trees should get priority in our forests, not commerce.