

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 2/16/2023 5:54:14 PM

First name: Noah

Last name: Burke

Organization:

Title:

Comments: The proposed logging of the telephone gap is absurdly out of touch with the spirit of Vermont and the needs of our population. I am a native Vermonter who makes my living working wood to make furniture, so I can appreciate the supposed value at stake here, yet I am appalled that this is even up for consideration in our day and age. Indiscriminate logging of our landscape is totally out of step with our needs as a state.