

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 2/20/2023 3:00:02 PM

First name: Katherine

Last name: Earle

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Wilderness like the telephone gap is requisite for us to live healthy lives. Vermont raised me and if I had not been able to wander through its forests I would not have made it through my teenage years. We cannot keep destructing forests and thinking we will also survive. We need to keep as much of the wild intact for us and future generations.

Please leave this area off our work untouched. It is precious, and needs to remain intact.