Data Submitted (UTC 11): 3/1/2023 9:01:56 PM
First name: Julia
Last name: Hansen
Organization:
Title:
Comments: At a time when the science and international community is clear that we must stop burning fossil fuels and protect nature's carbon reserves (aka forests), it is criminally irresponsible to allow a public forest to be logged. The Telephone Gap forest has ancient trees which absorb more carbon than younger trees and provides critical habitat to many endangered and threatened species. Please do your job and protect the forests and natural lands under your jurisdiction, don't allow them to be destroyed.