

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 3/11/2023 3:30:05 AM

First name: Sam

Last name: Knight

Organization:

Title:

Comments: This just seems like another way for the National Forest Service to get another line of income at the potential expense of the wild sheep populations in the Okanogan-Wenatchee National Forest. Domestic sheep and goats should never be let anywhere remotely near to a wild sheep. The wild sheep population need to be kept priority.