

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 3/12/2023 3:11:38 PM

First name: Pike

Last name: Porter

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Using data only going back to the 1960s to support the need for more early successional forest is arbitrary, why not go back to the 1760s? The need to let our forests grow outweighs other concerns until our CO2 levels are brought under 350 ppm.