Data Submitted (UTC 11): 3/12/2023 7:13:24 PM

First name: Marjorie Last name: Myers Organization:

Title:

Comments: Please do not destroy one of very few remaining New England forests. Only .03 % of the forests in New England are over 150 years old, and this is one of them. The health benefits of large old trees in terms of Carbon Dioxide consumption and the output of lots of fresh oxygen is well documented. Cut down some new pine growth if you must, but leave the old forests intact for the sake of our health!