

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 3/13/2023 12:25:40 AM

First name: Cathryn

Last name: Abbott

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Please do not open the forests of Telephone Gap to logging. The overwhelming majority of Vermont forestlands have been logged repeatedly. Older forests, such as Telephone Gap, are rare in Vermont. The forests of Telephone Gap provide essential ecological functions including carbon storage and biodiversity conservation. Keeping Telephone Gap ecologically intact will provide greater long-term benefits to the public.