

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 3/13/2023 1:55:41 PM

First name: Forrest

Last name: Brown

Organization:

Title:

Comments: As someone who has spent almost every summer of my life in Vermont, the forest is at the heart of what makes the state so special. Cutting down trees is an attack on the soul of the state, and only serves the pocketbooks of a few greedy and shortsighted corporations and does nothing for the people who live in Vermont and love the state. STOP cutting down trees!