Data Submitted (UTC 11): 3/13/2023 3:43:07 PM
First name: John
Last name: Cushman
Organization:
Title:
Comments: I oppose the planned cutting in one of our state's best established older forests, which I suggest has climate costs much greater than any benefits to be gained from this unnecessary harvesting. Please apply a reasonable "social cost of carbon" to any cost-benefit calculations and consider all the benefits, including carbon sequestration in the short term, as well as wildlife, water quality and recreational values of leaving this unusual forest intact.