

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 3/13/2023 3:59:29 PM

First name: bruce

Last name: miller

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Water is the lifeblood that keeps the heart of the Hills beating. How this precious resource is being obtained, the volume needed, and the proper reclamation back in to ecosystem does not seem to addressed at this time. I am not against mining, I am against irresponsible use of resources. The is more to this project than just legalities. Governing bodies need to consider their God given responsibilities to be good stewards to the land, animals and the community.