

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 3/13/2023 4:50:55 PM

First name: Teri

Last name: Havens

Organization:

Title:

Comments: As a thirty-year resident of the upper Crystal River Valley, I strongly object to the proposed Redstone to McClure Pass trail until a comprehensive environmental and wildlife impact analysis of the entire proposed trail is completed. Taking a piecemeal approach by only assessing individual sections of the trail is irresponsible. The Forest Service must consider how the impacts of construction and recreation will affect the ecosystem of the Crystal River corridor as a whole before moving this proposal forward.