

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 3/13/2023 8:47:40 PM

First name: Louise

Last name: Gogel

Organization:

Title:

Comments: National and State Forests are really important for the health of our planet. Many species do not do well with their habitat divided by an open line, such as a power line would produce, and the diversity of life on our planet ensures our own long term health.

I say leave the forests intact!