Data Submitted (UTC 11): 3/23/2023 8:12:43 PM
First name: rebecca
Last name: tippens
Organization:
Title:
Comments: It is frightening that you are planning to create roads in areas deemed roadless that obviously leads to more logging, burning and clearcutting.

If there is a request for any such activities to take place in the Roosevelt National Forest, the Forest Service MINIMALLY must let the public know where such endeavors are requested to take place, and when over the upcoming 20 year period AND to do your mandated job to make sure that the animals in these areas will have viable habitats!