

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 5/6/2023 1:21:10 AM

First name: Thomas

Last name: Ryan

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Old growth forest are imperative to biodiversity. There is currently not a good way to replace old growth forest and as such it must remain standing as the area currently is. Clear cutting will destroy a delicate ecosystem for short term financial benefit. The claim that this is good for people is frankly laughable and this proposal shouldn't have even made it this far.