

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 5/16/2023 12:48:22 PM

First name: George

Last name: Hamilton

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Much of this area is pristine wilderness and should be the very last place chosen to look for minerals. Between the noise pollution, possible water and soil contamination this exploration should not take place in this location. Not to mention that the damage to the land can never be undone - reclamation never makes the area whole again.