

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 6/4/2023 7:45:05 PM

First name: Peggy

Last name: Baugher

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I was born and raised in the black hills. Unless zinc will help to save lives I don't understand the necessity for fracking the land. It has already been established that fracking causes earthquakes and what it will do to the waters and environment will be destructive. There is no reason for this other than a money making scheme. And after the zinc dries up the company will leave and we will have polluted water and unstable land.