

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 6/7/2023 7:45:02 PM

First name: Darren

Last name: Lytle

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I live in the Black Hills and hike, bike, bird watch and everything else that goes on in our canyon. I strongly oppose mining. Mining will create a huge problem for the mountain biking trails, migrating birds and our water supply. It is mind blowing the the forest service will let this on and jeopardize all of these things and well as the 4 billion dollar tourism industry in South Dakota for the little bit of income the state would profit from the mining.