

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 6/8/2023 11:28:58 PM

First name: Charles

Last name: Wecker

Organization:

Title:

Comments: To whom it may concern,

Building mines on top of trails severely reduced the resiliency of communities and tourism dollars as well as resilience by turning our public lands into a mine which is a limited resource unlike trails. These mining claims should be thrown out and the community should be provided with a renewable resource. I can personally say I will not visit a community to check out a mine, but I would to visit a trail or trail system.

Sincerely,

Charles Wecker