

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 6/9/2023 2:14:15 AM

First name: Mary

Last name: Storm

Organization:

Title:

Comments: When I lived in Rapid City, South Dakota, I worked as a social worker and got to know the Lakota people and the beautiful country. I camped at Lake Pactola. I also lived on Rapid Creek. This is all sacred land and important to all. We have got to learn new ways of living with the Earth. We need to stop extraction and learn to "not want it all". I strongly urge the decision makers to choose sustainability.