Data Submitted (UTC 11): 8/5/2023 2:07:44 PM
First name: Roberta
Last name: Boyd
Organization:
Title:
Comments: Why is there any question. Definitely hazardous trees adjacent to roads, high-use motorized trails, and recreation and administrative sites within the Stanislaus National Forest absolutely should be removed immediately upon being identified. Wood, wood chips should be sold with some provided to low/moderate income families and Seniors.

Reduction of fire ?? material, ensuring public and employee safety reduction of liability is paramount.

A healthy forest is desirable !