

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 8/17/2023 1:03:19 AM

First name: Bill

Last name: Williams

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I believe that over the snow activities have no impact on the wildlife if anything it helps the wildlife be able to navigate the deep snow closing such areas will not just hurt the people who enjoy this recreational activity but will hurt many others in the way of the economy it will stop people from buying such machines and being able to be active in the winter months the amount of animals you see when in the winter is almost none because of the deep snowpack they don't normally winter in such areas