Comments: Please don't take away more areas to OSV. There is already many areas that are claimed untouchable and making more areas off limits will likely drive people to break more laws and create more unsafety. OSV riders tend to ride in groups and will often come upon other riders who love exploring the outdoors together - thus allowing increased safety as we watch out for one another. Keep the lands open and share with all. Every OSV rider I've met has been respectful and thoughtful of the land, trees, and animals around them.
