

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 8/22/2023 4:58:13 PM

First name: Joseph

Last name: White

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Domestic sheep carry diseases for which they are inoculated. Wildlife, particularly Big Horn sheep, have no defense against those diseases.

Also, domestic sheep grazing habits are unlike any native herbivores causing damage to native plant communities and favoring the invasion of non-native, undesirable plant and animal species.

Therefore, I suggest that Domestic sheep grazing is incompatible with the very concept of Wilderness designation.