

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 8/22/2023 5:42:18 PM

First name: Dita

Last name: Škalic

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Sheep grazing is interfering with wildlife in High Uintas Wilderness. Domestic sheep are competing with native bighorn sheep, and people shoot native predators to protect their sheep. If we want to repopulate the area with bighorn sheep, grazing should be restricted - at the very least, grazing permits that are voluntarily returned should be retired - and shooting predators should be banned.