

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 8/22/2023 5:41:11 PM

First name: Bernadette

Last name: Andaloro

Organization:

Title:

Comments: The High Uintas Wilderness should be primarily focused on the natural wildlife that is native to the area. If domestic sheep and cattle grazing is allowed, it competes with that wildlife for the same food and water both need to survive. Also, if natural predators of the domestic livestock are being killed in an effort to protect the latter, it totally upsets the natural balance which should be a priority.