

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 8/22/2023 7:22:32 PM

First name: Stephanie

Last name: Farac

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Hello. I don't think sheep should be allowed to graze in National forest. They degrade the landscape and take away habitat from other ungulates. They are also a target for predators who call this ecosystem home. National forest is public lands that are enjoyed by many. When I visit these areas, I expect to see wildlife and intact ecosystems. Livestock do not belong on Americas public lands!!