

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 8/22/2023 11:49:16 PM

First name: Lauren

Last name: Linda

Organization:

Title:

Comments: When sheep graze, they leave bare soil behind, degrading the environment.

The choice is simple: the decision should end grazing in the High Uintas Wilderness in order to protect native wildlife, restore the degraded watershed, and enhance opportunities for an increasingly rare Wilderness experience.