Comments: The word Wilderness means wild area....not private areas for anyone who chooses to change things, kill and mutilate what is there living and kill the existing vegetation and the existing way of life that belongs to wild animals and grass and timber for centuries. No ONE HAS THAT RIGHT. This is NOT personal land for people to infringe upon to do as they wish. That is what property deeds are for.... when property is purchased. SO NOW, people are not purchasing anything... like laws require.....they just steal it for their own well being and the hell with the well being of the animals that live there ... STOP this madness. I am disgusted with what the human race is doing to animals . WHERE ARE THE LAWS TO PROTECT THEM?
