

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 8/24/2023 1:53:20 PM

First name: Helen

Last name: Barker

Organization:

Title:

Comments: The High Uintas Wilderness should be dedicated to its native wildlife. To the extent livestock grazing is allowed, it should be limited so as to not compete with wildlife for food or space or to spread disease to native species.

Plus, domestic sheep do not discriminate when eating vegetation - wild flowers are just as good as grasses!