

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 8/29/2023 2:05:34 PM

First name: J Christopher

Last name: Marshall

Organization:

Title:

Comments: The proposed cutting should yield to recreational uses which have far more value to the surrounding towns and visitors from urban areas.

Substantial buffers should protect the uses of all hiking trails and parking areas. The USFS itself will benefit from buffers by mitigating the adverse effects of allowing eye sores for which it is responsible.

Any cutting, road work or yard construction should take into account potential erosion due to future rains such as those experienced this summer.