

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 8/31/2023 8:03:35 PM

First name: Gwen

Last name: Stone

Organization:

Title:

Comments: It is not our old growth or natural forests that need to be thinned or breaks made in them. It is the "managed" plantations that are the problem. They burn Hot and Fast and then smolder for months because they are unnatural, too close together, and have no diversity. Their undergrowth is a thick layer of needles that cannot be put out.