

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 9/7/2023 3:53:04 PM

First name: Michael

Last name: Kubas

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Fuel breaks are a helpful to ensure public safety and public access. I agree follow-up work needs to happen to prevent seedling regrowth in these areas. The Little Belts are some of the most dense areas of the Lewis and Clark national forest so the fuel break projects actually improve the wildlife habitat via increasing the usable forage. I support these efforts.