Comments: I'm very excited for the No Name expansion. I got to ski some of that terrain a couple of winters ago through the Monarch cat skiing operation, and the zone is going to be a playful, fun addition to the existing terrain.

I am hopeful, too, that the expansion and added warming hut will help spread out the crowds during busy holiday weekends by providing another area to take breaks in addition to the base area.

I'm looking forward to riding No Name for years to come.
