Comments: Hi Bret,

Please allow this to go on the record in favor of Outlast Season 2.

With Petersburg acting as base camp for the cast and crew for the duration of filming, this would create a massive economic influx. With crew given per diem to spend on food in the town, staying in local accommodations that would otherwise be empty and hiring locals for safety, production assistants, pilots, captains and others.

With the community of Petersburg being so seasonal, this really helps the community, it's businesses and people that live and work in town year round. It's creating income that otherwise would not exist.

Thanks for your time.

Hannah
