

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 10/28/2023 10:08:32 PM

First name: Louise

Last name: Haberfeld

Organization:

Title:

Comments: It is ridiculous to suggest that e-bikes should have access to forest trails. Hiking and mountain biking are for the young and strong. If you can't haul a bike up and down hill on your own power, then you shouldn't be on the trail.

ADA access is a different story. There should be designated short trails for those who live in wheelchairs (or for disabled children in strollers).

E-bikes belong on paved trails and roadways.