

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 11/16/2023 12:43:05 PM

First name: Dorothea

Last name: Leicher

Organization:

Title:

Comments: While I approve of planned burns to manage wildfire risk in general, I oppose its use in the affected wilderness areas, because it is inconsistent with the wilderness designation. In those areas only lightning strike induced fires should be left to their natural role. This is also an important research method because it will allow a comparison of wildfire characteristics in the wilderness and other areas to allow for fine tuning of the risk management techniques. Thanks