Comments: To whom it may concern,

The Forest Service should exclude all of the designated wilderness. The Wilderness plans for the Sequoia and Sierra must comply with the Wilderness Act. Some of the American Wilderness are at stake. Including, but not limited to, its criticalness are Ansel Adams, John Muir, Kaiser, etc.

Please have the agency allow the natural lightening-caused fire to play an ecological role in the wildness of the Sequoia and Sierra National Forests.

Sincerely,

Shannon Bearman
