

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 11/16/2023 2:05:21 PM

First name: Charles

Last name: Alexander

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I find it hard to believe this man made activity could be proposed for a wilderness area, let alone a wilderness area containing what remains of our beloved Sequoia trees. These are way too precious to subject to this artificial burn, which with out doubt would be far more destructive of the ecosystem than a natural fire set by lightning. I feel you should let these trees alone, and find a less rare ecosystem to subject to your fires.