

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 11/16/2023 2:34:18 PM

First name: shirley

Last name: mills

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I am writing to you to object to the Sequoia and Sierra National Forests Prescribed Fire Project.

In order to comply with the Wilderness Act the Forest Service should exclude all of the designated Wildernesses from its proposed burning plans for the above National Forests.

Fire has played and continues to play an important role in these Wildernesses but fire caused by lightning strikes is far better than human driven manipulation of the Wildernesses.

Nature will always balance itself better without human interference.